Week 40 May 15-19

Theme: Old Favorites

Bits of Intelligence: Mammals

Language Arts: This week we will look back on many of our favorite books, songs and flannel board stories. Books for the week include Driving on a Tactor, Pete the Cat books and The Potty Train. The flannel board will come to life with 5 Green and Speckled Frogs, and Make a Rainbow. The children will enjoy being monkeys as they act out "Five Little Monkeys Jumping on the Bed." If the weather permits, we will enjoy storytime outside.

Concept: Old facorites is a nice way to wrap up the school year with the children's favorite activities. Stations will be open and the children will love choosing their favorite one to play in! Shelf jobs, blocks, puzzles, or sensory fun, which one will your child choose?.

Craft and Writing: Fine motor skills will once again be put to the test this week as we use scissors for a silly activity. . The children will have a blast painting and working on process art. Mrs. Nicole has a few fun review projects planned too!

Motor: The children will enjoy plenty of outdoor fun. Hooray! We love Mr. Sun!
