JUNIORS NEWS

May 15-19, 2017

Theme: Spiders

Introductions: Review

Bit Cards: Insects

Fable: Jupiter and the Monkey

Moral: Think before you speak

LANGUAGE ARTS: Flannel board stories and a listening game will be done this week. The children will also be using a fishing game to review our letters and phonics. Any books or pictures about insects are welcome.

CRAFT AND WRITING: We will work on a matching paper and a paper that reinforces positional words. A bug collage will be done this week as well. The children will be making insects out of play-doh to wrap up our week.

CONCEPT: This week we will be working on greater than and less than in Math, as well as reviewing our numbers that we have learned this year. To wrap up the week, we will be playing Number B-I-N-G-O. During Science, we will talk about spiders and how they are the same or how they are different to other insects. We will continue to use our bug jars this week.

MOTOR: This week the children are going to be using a variety of equipment to complete an obstacle course outside. If the weather is not cooperating we will do this activity inside. We will be going outside daily, so please make sure that your child is dressed for the weather each day.

Reminders:

Show and Tell:

Friday, May 19th – bring in something to do with spiders or insects.

Memorial Day Holiday:

The school will be closed on Monday, May 29th. Full tuition is still due for this week and there will be no switching of days.

Spring Program:

PLEASE MAKE SURE TO HAVE YOUR CHILD THERE BY 5:15 P.M. We look forward to seeing your family and friends!!

Poem of the Week:

“The Teeny Tiny Spider”

The teeny tiny spider began to crawl on me.
I found him on my leg, to be exact, on my knee.
The teeny tiny spider crawled up onto my chest.
This was such a long trip, he took a little rest.
The teeny tiny spider headed for my arm.
It tickled quite a bit but I knew he meant no harm.
The teeny tiny spider crawled up on my finger.
He landed on my thumb, but he didn't want to linger.
I helped him to my face and placed him on my nose.
Then he lost his balance and fell down to my toes.
The teeny tiny spider went upon his way.
He clearly had enough of his crawling for today!

Have a Wonderful Week!
