Theme:
Art Week

This week the children will become little artists and create their own masterpieces throughout this week!

Monday:

Bike Day! Please bring your child's bike, helmet and knee/elbow pads. For art, the children will do a Mesh Dabber Painting and we will paint with yarn.

Tuesday:

Canvas Art will be coming to Bobbie Noonan's! The children will be painting on a canvas. Also, the children will make sculptures using paper scraps.

Wednesday:

Today I will read the book "Lots of Dots" by Craig Frazier. This book is about how dots can be found just about everywhere you go. For art, the children will make dot prints with paint and dot brushes. Also, the children will play with play dough.

Thursday:

Today I will read "I Ain't Gonna Paint No More" by Karen Beaumont. This book is about a kid who gets in to trouble for painting the house and starts painting themselves. For art, the children will paint a body outline printable and make people prints with cookie cutters.

Friday:

Today I will read "A Rainbow of My Own" by Don Freeman. For art, the children will use paint and squeegees to make rainbow pictures. Also, the children will make masher prints using potato mashers.

Have a great week!
