Theme:
Proud to be an American

Happy Birthday America!! This week the children will learn interesting facts about America and I will show pictures of historic symbols of the U.S.A.

Monday:

The children will show their American pride by wearing Red, white and blue. Also, I will read Fourth of July Mice by Bethany Roberts. The children will paint a picture of the mouse from the story and they will make a cupcake liner firework.

Tuesday:

The school is closed in observance of the 4th of July holiday. As a reminder full tuition is still due for this week and NO switching of days for this week.

Wednesday:

Today the children will make a U.S.A. map collage and they will play 4th of July bingo.

Thursday:

Movie Day! Please bring in a G rated movie.

Friday:

Today we will make a Liberty Bell, a Bald Eagle craft using the children's hands for the wings and a fire cracker craft.

Have a great week!
Miss Milham
