“Old Favorites”
(Holiday Flashbacks)

Language

This week in Language, “Old Favorite” holiday activities from the past seasons are coming BACK!!! On Monday we will do the “Time Warp” back to Halloween with the Body Play “Sometimes I Like to Walk in the Dark” and the Storybook “Little Goblins Ten.” Then it’s time to give Thanks on Tuesday for the Finger Play “Ten Little Turkeys” and the Storybook “Twas the Day After Thanksgiving.” Jolly old St. Nicholas is back in town on Wednesday with the Storybook “Santa’s Surprise” and the Flannel Board Story “My Kitten’s Mitten.” On Thursday some Valentine’s day fun will be had during Follow Along Songs, a “Find the Cupid” activity, and the Storybook reading of “Where’s My Sweaty Pie?.” Then Friday we will be hopping back into Easter with the Flannel Board Story “The Easter Rabbit” and the Storybook “Peter Cottontail’s Easter Egg Hunt.”

Concept

Pumpkin fun is back on Monday with activities such as Jack-O-Lantern face shape Sorting and pumpkin color Matching. Numbers will also be reviewed using bats! On Tuesday, a turkey feather Size Seriation activity will be practiced and a color Matching activity will be reviewed using squirrels and acorns. A Christmas “Mitten Match-up” activity will be played on Wednesday then the students will review numbers using stockings and colors during an ice skate activity. Thursday a Valentine heart Size Seriation activity will be practiced. Then on Friday Easter bunnies will be matched to their colored pom-pom tails and the top and bottoms of plastic eggs will be matched together. Afterwards the children will go to the Discovery Zone where Easter shapes will be made out of playdough.
