Pre-K Update

Language Arts

Hooray for Spring! With the warmer weather on the way at last, we are ready to celebrate Spring in Ms. Jen's room. She has a wonderful assortment of fingerplays and poems to share with the children. We have been working hard on rhyming words and building words.

Introductions:

Story #11 - My Big Blue Boat

(My, Big, Blue, Boat, my, big, blue, boat)

Vocabulary:

Wasteful - inclined to waste

Xerox - a trademark used for a copy machine

March 27-31

No pre-school classes

Craft and Writing

Spring will be in full bloom this week as the children welcome the new season. Watch as our crafts focus on the colors BLUE and ORANGE. This week will offer plenty of opportunity for cutting and printing practice.

Motor

Finally, Spring is here! Weather permitting; our outside time will be packed with action as we play the games hopscotch, red-light, green-light and relay races. Our obstacle course will move outside and will include slides, swings and running activities.

Concept

Mrs. Ann has the children busy talking about the changes in weather and other signs of Spring. Rote counting to 50 and counting by 2's and 5's continue to be a part of our daily routine.
