

Bobbie Noonan's
Weekly Update

Week 13 and 14

Pre- Kindergarten News

Mrs. Karen

This week we will learn about Pilgrims and Native Americans.

Introduce story #5 (I can)

Introduce numbers 13 and 14

The Bit cards will help us learn some interesting facts about insects.

In the Language Arts area we will review letters Aa thru Nn. The children are doing very well with their reading stories. We are learning our story words by playing "beat the bell". We are matching upper case letters to lower case letters. This week we will discuss Pilgrims and Native Americans and talk about Veterans Day.

In Craft and Writing the children are working very hard on their printing papers.

We will work on readiness papers learning numbers 13 and 14. This week we will practice using our scissor skills.

Concept: We will continue to work on estimation activities using various items.

Folding napkins, pouring, measuring, and sorting items will be added to our practical life shelf.

Science- We are talking about living and non living things.

We will continue to work on simple addition using our attribute blocks.

Reminders:

November 12th and 20th Music with Mrs. Michelle (Keep an ear open for some Christmas music)
