MY HEALTHY CHECKLIST

Language Arts: During the next two weeks, we will be talking about ways to be healthy. We will discuss the fable, “The Greedy Fox” We will continue reviewing our new story, “I can”. The children will enjoy a few flannel board stories to help them understand how to be healthy.

Craft and Writing: Our class will continue to practice printing our new letters as well as working on name papers. We will work on different crafts to go along with being healthy.

Concept: The children will sort healthy vs. unhealthy foods. The class will review graphing skills when discussing our favorite winter motor activities and favorite healthy foods. Numbers 19 & 20 will be added to our jobs.

Motor: Bear, walrus, and fox oh my! Our children will be happy to show you these new winter yoga poses! We will continue to reinforce the following skills: balance, hand eye coordination, and target practice. Please bring weather appropriate outerwear. We would love to get outside if the weather cooperates!

Notes to Parents:

- Martin Luther King Jr. Day is Monday, January 16th. We will be discussing his importance to the world!
- Just a reminder, we have open registration for our Summer Camp and 2023-2024 school year. The summer activity fee is $30.00 and the Fall registration fee is $100.00 single child/$150.00 for a family. Please ask with any questions!!
- If your child wears snow boots to school, please make sure to bring an extra pair of gym shoes for them to change into in their backpack. Thank you!
- Please remember to bring your winter gear for playing outside. We require snow pants, boots, gloves, hats, mittens, and scarves for outdoor play! We do take the children out if it's 25 degrees or above. Thank you!
- Parents, please remember to label winter gear, extra clothes, blankets, and cot sheets.
- Please remember to check your child's backpack or folder to see if he/she needs anything to bring for school and please check backpacks often for important paperwork.
