Review:

All that we have learned so far!

Language Arts: Art is beautiful, art is everywhere! The children will have fun exploring different Art and will enjoy reading, "The Crayon" counting board book.

Craft and Writing: The little artists will have fun this week as they paint with different textures. For example, we will use sand paint, finger paint, and shaving cream. The children will also have fun coloring on the easel. We will go over how to use a paint brush and scissors during art time.

Concept: The children will have fun counting during different craft supplies like pom-poms and popsicle sticks.

Motor: Our class will have fun as we ball paint as well as draw with chalk outside weather permitting.
