Language Arts: Our discussions about zoo animals will take place through a variety of finger plays including a favorite "Going to the Zoo". We will go on a lion hunt and enjoy puppet playtime with our favorite zoo animals.

Concept: The new jobs that will be added to our shelves will include our new numbers. We will continue to work on the concept of big and little and the science table will be open for exploration.

Craft & Writing: This week we will be creating many fun animal art projects for zoo week. We will also be tracing and finger painting our numbers 1 and 2.

Motor: The ball and wand and block bowling will help build eye/hand coordination. An obstacle course will be set up using the stair step and tunnel. We will continue implementing other activities that have been introduced since week one.
