Craft and Writing

The next 2 weeks we will be doing some fun crafts focused around safety, police and fire. I have some activities that will focus on safety signs we see every where. We will also create some fire safety crafts with different materials.

Also this week, we will begin working with letters E and F. We have been working on different ways practice writing like on the chalk boards, the dry erase boards, and on paper. Keep practicing at home as well! :)

Concept

While we focus on safety these next few weeks, we will talk a lot about shapes and colors. We will be associating the shapes of signs and colors of signs to remember what they mean. We will do some comparing and contrasting of fire and police. Lots of focus these 2 weeks on fire safety and emergencies. We will talk about calling 911 and our plans in our school and homes if we have an emergency. This is a concept that although hard to talk about sometimes is really important.

I will also be introducing 5 and 6 as we continue working on our counting and number recognition.

Language Arts

We've got lots of great stories to read the next few weeks about safety, fire and police! I have really loved reading with this group. They really enjoy telling stories with me. I will begin working on our new letters E and F. We will learn the next parts of our A is for Amos songs we learn the sounds the letters make. I have a great song and story about a fire station that you may start hearing the children sing at home. We will also play some language games with photos to get the children talking about the safety topics we are learning about.
