Student of the Week: AJ

Theme: Pilgrims, Families, Turkeys

Language Arts:

These weeks, the boys and girls will review their phonetic sounds, and practice sounding words. They will also read the current story they are on. Building sentences, and working on compound words will also help the children. They have been doing a fantastic job! We will also enjoy several holiday themed songs and music.

SPELLING TEST ON FRIDAY, 11/17

hat rat ham pan cat mad nap

Max Sad

Math:

The children will be reviewing all of their numbers, counting to 100, greater than and less than, addition, and number vocabulary words.

Science:

The children will enjoy making butter and “magic” milk. Our STEM project will involve berries and toothpicks, and we will find out why popcorn kernels pop. We’ll predict sink or float with holiday themed items: cranberries, acorns, and popcorn kernels.

Social Studies:

We will continue our discussion on the First Thanksgiving. We will participate in role play activities on the first feast, hunting, and fishing.

Art:

The children will be drawing turkeys, while listening to a turkey riddle. Other projects will include what the children are thankful for, and other holiday themed crafts.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY DANIKA!!! 11/11
