

News at Noonan in Mrs. Laura's VPK Class

What's happening this week?

12/4-12/8

Theme : Weather/ Clouds

Intro: M and N 13 and 14

Craft and Writing

This week we will be working on a few M and N worksheets. We will also be working hard on some top secret holiday projects!

To go with our weather theme, I will be doing a little project about clouds with the book "It Looked Like Spilled Milk."

Just a heads up, if you aren't seeing work coming home the next few weeks, its because we are mak-

Motor

We will be doing some dancing this week o our holiday tunes!

Notes

Holiday Program :

Friday December, 15th

10:30 am

Show and Tell: Weather

Concept

The science shelf will be used this week as we discuss weather and clouds. We will be building clouds by counting cotton balls.

As we explore the weather we will discuss seasons and changes. We don't see snow but we will be talking about it! :)

Our 100's chart is growing and we are continuing to work hard on counting by 5's and 10's! I will also be talking more about

Language Arts

We will be doing lots and lots of review this week! I will be introducing more compound words and breaking down words while counting syllables. The class really enjoys these activities!

Each day for the next few weeks we will be using some of our class time to practice for our Christmas program with the other 2 classes. It's going to be a fun show!
