Theme:
Careers

Introductions:
Review Week

Language:
Do you know what you want to be when you grow up? A doctor, a firefighter or a police officer? This week the children will be learning about all the different types of jobs. We will enjoy reading stories and singing songs that will reinforce our theme of careers. A new flannel board story will be introduced, "Five Police Officers".

Concept:
During our concept time, we will be looking at pictures of different types of careers. The children will also be working on their sorting skills by matching colors where they belong.

Craft & Writing:
During this week we will work on papers and projects to go along with our theme. We will also have fun making chefs hats and mailmen hats.

Motor:
This week we will bring out the balance beam and tunnel and we will have some fun bowling.
