Theme : Healthy Kids

Intro: REVIEW

Craft and Writing

Kids Healthy Eating Plate

Healthy kids week is fun in craft and writing! We will be using some magazines and grocery ads to create a collage about healthy foods vs not so healthy foods using our scissors and glue. We will work on our Healthy kids Club packets with our crayons and markers. We will also be doing a few worksheets along with our healthy kids theme.

To practice our writing skills, I have created a daily name practice game with a dry erase markers. I think the kids will love this!

Concept

We are almost to 100 days of school so we will continue our daily counting by 1's 5's and 10's. We will be practicing our patterning with some mini erasers which the kids love when I pull out. We will also be working in partners with our dice game. The kids work together to count and write the numbers they roll on the dice.

As we enter the second half of the year I will be working extra hard with the class on number recognition and number order. They are doing great!

For our healthy kids theme, we will be discussing the food pyramid!

Motor

Lots of Exercise this week!

Language Arts

It's a great week to review all we know! I will be playing some games to review our phonics and I have some special large group games about compound words, and what's the missing sound.

As we learn about being healthy we will create a word chart with of "Ways To Be A Healthy Kid." We will also create our own packets to read at home. The kids will become members of the Healthy Kids Club.
