

May News

Our last full month of school is here. We will be finishing up the year with final assessments, and report cards will be sent home at the end of the month. All the children have progressed nicely and we are sure they will transition to the next level with ease!

From the Business Office

As our school year comes to an end, please contact the office to clear up an outstanding balance.

School Physicals

Early summer is a great time to schedule school physicals for the upcoming school year.
