

Lockport Pre-Kindergarten Newsletter

Week 38 April 29 to May 3, 2024

Birds

We will start evaluating the children for the last time. You will receive a report card at the end of the year. We are excited to share with you all the growth your children have made. We are very proud of each and every pre-kindergarten student.

LANGUAGE AND READING:

We will be introducing many different types of birds along with their characteristics. We will include where they live, what they eat and many more fun facts. Our classroom library will be filled with many bird books for the children to enjoy.

We will learn about the proverb, "Look before you leap".

Lastly, the children will continue to practice phonetic sounds and sounding out words.

CONCEPT:

As we learn all about birds, we will discover different characteristics and vote on which bird is the class's favorite one. We will go outside and look around at birds and try to find a bird's nest. Lastly, the children will get to make a bird feeder and work on bird jobs from the concept shelves.

CRAFT AND WRITING:

As always, each week the children practice their handwriting, scissor skills and readiness papers. Many crafts will be created, including a bluebird project. If time prevails, we may even have free time to enjoy with play doh and/or shaving cream.

We also are finishing our Mother's Day projects :~)!
